RAMA, THE POORNA AVATAR: The Ramayana is considered the highest epic and one easily accessible to all. The Ramayana, which narrates the avatar of Emperuman, is itself the Vedas, said Dhamal Perundevi in a discourse. Valmiki named it succinctly as Ramayana, by taking the syllables from the four Vedas. From Rig Veda, he used the syllable 'Ra', 'Ma' from Sama Veda, 'Ya' from Yajur Veda and 'Na' from Atharvana Veda, in his compilation of the epic of 24,000 verses. The Gayatri mantra has 24 syllables and at the start of every 1,000th verse, the sage used a syllable from Gayatri. The work has been blessed by Brahma, while Narada extended his guidance in order to ensure devotees experience in full the sterling qualities of Rama.

After compiling the epic, the question of how to reach it to the people arose and Luv and Khush rose to the task.

It is said that avatar is the act of descent of God in order to help man ascend towards Him. Rama and Krishna avatars are referred to as poorna avatars: in both of them God stayed on for many years, before and after accomplishing the purpose of His manifestation.

As Rama, He stayed on to establish Ram Rajya in Ayodhya, the incomparable city. — In The Hindu

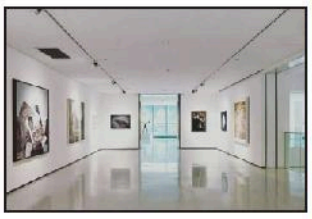
Museum staff hangs his arts next to classics



Munich: An employee of the Pinakothek der Moderne art museum in Munich, Germany, reportedly hung up his own paintings next to works by Pablo Picasso or Franz Marc without asking anyone for permission.

The 51-year-old unnamed man was reportedly working in the museum technical department, was able to casually drill holes into an empty wall and hang up his own paintings next to those of acclaimed painters from all over the world. It is unclear how long the paintings were up for between someone noticed that they weren't supposed to be there, but according to a museum spokesperson, they couldn't have been up for too long because "supervisors usually notice something like that immediately". As for the man's motivation, one can only assume that he believed showing his work in the museum would lead to future opportunities.

Man uses another identity for 35 years

Iowa: A former University of Iowa Hospital employee admitted to stealing another man's identity and using it for the last 35 years, thus causing that person to be arrested and committed to a mental hospital.

On Apr. 1, 58-year-old Matthew David Keirans pleaded guilty to federal charges that he had stolen another man's identity and used it for the last 35 years. At the time of his arrest, Keirans was working at the University of Iowa Hospital under the name William Donald Woods, an alias he had adopted in 1988. It's unclear how the man was able to use Woods' identity, but Court documents revealed that in 1990 he was able to a fraudulent Colorado identification card with Woods' name and birthday and in 1991 he bought a car in Woods' name with two checks that eventually bounced.

REALLY...?

- Kabaddi is a contact sport that is around 4,000 years old. It is another sport that started in Tamil Nadu, and developed from ancient village defense tactics and group hunting.
- Ludo was first played in the 6th century and the game was called 'Pachisi' evolved from a very ancient game called 'Chausar' played by Kauravas and Pandavas. Many historians point out that there is a depiction of this game in the caves of Ellora. Ludo was also enjoyed by the Mughal emperors — especially Akbar. The Britishers later modified the game to use a cubic dice with a dice cup and patented it as 'Ludo' in 1896 in England.

The above are some of the pictures of the Kolkata Memorial (Brindavan) of Maharaja Chamaraja Wadiyar.

Sir,

This refers to the column "Over A Cup of Evening Tea" by Dr. K. Javeed Nayeem in Star of Mysore dated Mar.17. In the article titled "The glorious past of a present-day landmark," the doctor says, "The reigning king is said to have succumbed to an attack of Diphtheria while on a visit to Calcutta, where his funeral was held on a small plot of land at Kalighat, that still stands as the property of Mysore royal family."

I would like to bring to the knowledge of readers about this Memorial, popularly known as Mahisur Garden. It is a better maintained memorial of Mysore Royal in the distant Kolkata, that too by the Municipal Corporation!

Unfortunately the story doesn't end here. In the immediate aftermath of the death of the last Maharaja Jayachamaraja Wadiyar on 23.9.1974 (50 years ago), the State Government annexed all the Palace temples including the above Memorial. But the State has conveniently forgotten the existence of the above Memorial and Kolkata Municipal Corporation (KMC) too used a vast vacant land to build electric crematoria for public use.

Thankfully they demarcated and developed the Memorial with exclusive compound with murals on the wall and a functional fountain in the front. It is well-maintained with even a Purohit appointed to look after. I have visited the place a couple of times and the Maharaja's death and birth anniversaries are celebrated appropriately every year with the help of the Purohit.

Former Mayors seek five-point development agenda for Mysuru

The members of Former Congress Mayors' Parishat and other party leaders during a press briefing held at the Indira Gandhi Congress Bhavan in the city yesterday.

Mysuru, Apr. 13 (BLU&BS)- Former Congress Mayors' Parishat in Mysuru has outlined five crucial demands ahead of the upcoming Lok Sabha elections. These demands, deemed essential for the advancement of various sectors and the overall enhancement of Mysuru's prospects, have been presented without compromise.

During a press briefing held at the Indira Gandhi Congress Bhavan in the city yesterday, R.G. Narasimha Iyengar, the Convener of the Parishat that has over 15 members, emphasised the importance of these demands. He noted, "We have extensively deliberated on these demands with Chief Minister Siddaramaiah, who has expressed his supportive stance towards them."

During the press briefing, former Mayors B.K. Prakash, D. Dhruvakumar, H.N. Srikantaiah, Dakshinamurthy, Pushpalatha, Modamani, R. Purushotham, Ayub Khan, Anantha and B.L. Bhyrappa, City Congress President R. Murthy among others, were in attendance to underscore the importance of these demands. The demands encompass several key areas crucial for the development and well-being of Mysuru:

1. Kabini Second Stage drinking water project: Initiated under the Jawaharlal Nehru National Urban Renewal Mission (JnNURM) during Prime Minister Dr. Manmohan Singh's tenure, this project requires urgent implementation to address the water needs of areas and a host of layouts beyond the Outer Ring Road (ORR).

2. Grade separators for traffic management: The increasing traffic density on roads connecting the ORR poses a significant challenge to smooth traffic flow. Constructing grade separators at critical junctions is imperative to alleviate this issue.

3. Scientific solid waste management: With a rise in solid waste generation, it is essential to identify suitable locations on the outskirts for the scientific processing of waste, ensuring effective waste management practices.

4. Development of parking infrastructure: The escalating number of vehicles in Mysuru coupled with inadequate parking facilities has led to congestion and disruptions in traffic flow. Constructing dedicated parking lots across various parts of the city is necessary to address this issue.

5. Tourism infrastructure development: Mysuru's status as a globally recognised tourist destination necessitates the development of basic amenities and comprehensive infrastructure for tourist spots located up to 120 kilometres from the city centre. This development will not only enhance the tourist experience but also generate numerous job opportunities, both directly and indirectly.

Vokkaliga community determined to make Modi PM again: Yaduveer

Mysuru, Apr. 13 (MK&DM)- Mysuru-Kodagu Lok Sabha Constituency BJP candidate Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar said that Vokkaliga community has sworn to make Narendra Modi as the Prime Minister again.

Addressing a poll campaign at Gangatkar Vokkaliga Sriramamandir Bhavan in N.R. Mohalla here yesterday, Yaduveer observed that the Vokkaliga community has stood for the cause of the country since centuries.

Stating that he believes that the community, which is known for patriotism, will stand up for nationalism now and in the future too, he said that the support of the community is key for true realisation of the PM's 'Viksit Bharat' initiative.

Appealing the voters to give him a chance to serve them, Yaduveer assured that he will do his best for the integrated growth of the Constituency.

BJP State Secretary and former MLA Preetham Gowda said that Yaduveer has come out of the Palace to serve the people.

Mysuru-Kodagu Lok Sabha Constituency BJP candidate Yaduveer Wadiyar addressing poll campaign at Gangatkar Vokkaliga Sriramamandir Bhavan in N.R. Mohalla yesterday as others look on.

Pointing out that Yaduveer has entered politics after being deeply impressed with the works of PM Modi, he appealed the voters to ensure the victory of Yaduveer by a huge margin.

Quoting history, he said that Vokkaligas came to the rescue of the erstwhile Mysore rulers when Tipu Sultan attacked the Mysore kingdom and stressed that the entire Hindu community should vote as one for Yaduveer.

City BJP President and former MLA L. Nagendra, in his address, highlighted the role of Vokkaligas in nation building and appealed the electorate to vote of Yaduveer and thus ensure that the BJP-led NDA gets at least 400 seats in the LS polls.

Former Mayor Sandesh Swamy too spoke.

Even as the leaders were addressing, Chikkeeramma, an elderly woman of N.R. Mohalla, walked up to the stage and blessed Yaduveer for his victory.

Former KEA Chairman B.P. Manjunath, leaders Manju, Manju C. Gowda, Padmanabha, S. Murali, M.N. Ramu and others were present.

Poll-related seizures in State cross Rs. 300 crore

Mysuru, Apr. 13 (BCT)- Unaccounted cash totalling Rs. 5.50 lakh was confiscated at Mysore Airport yesterday by teams enforcing the Model Code of Conduct.

The seizure occurred at the Static Surveillance Team checkpost established at the Airport, with the carrier identified as Mohammad Jasin, en route to Hyderabad. Jasin failed to furnish documents verifying the source of the substantial amount, leading to the confiscation of the cash.

Tahsildar Mahesh Kumar and Assistant Election Officer Nandeesh instructed staff to deposit the seized money in the District Treasury.

In a separate incident, election officials intercepted gold worth Rs. 10 crore in Ramanagara during a routine inspection on the Mysuru-Bengaluru Highway at Bidadi. The vehicle, travelling from Mysuru to Bengaluru, was halted at the Hejjala Toll Gate, where the seizure took place.

Meanwhile, the Election Commission reported that election-related seizures in Karnataka surpassed Rs. 300 crore on Friday since the implementation of the Model Code of Conduct on March 16. Karnataka's Lok Sabha elections are scheduled in two phases on April 26 and May 7 across its 28 Constituencies.

Since March 16, the Election Commission, in collaboration with its enforcement teams comprising Flying Squads, Police and Static Surveillance Teams, has conducted seizures totalling Rs. 307.61 crore in Karnataka.

According to a statement from the Chief Electoral Officer of Karnataka, the seizures include Rs. 46.01 crore in cash, Rs. 7.73 crore worth of articles intended for free distribution, liquor valued at Rs. 147 crore, narcotic substances worth Rs. 9.75 crore and gold worth Rs. 24.38 crore, among other items. Additionally, 1,587 FIRs have been filed in connection with the seizure of cash, liquor, drugs, precious metals and freebies.

Excise Dept. has taken action, including booking 2,002 heinous cases, 2,531 cases for breaches of license conditions, 119 cases under the NDPS (Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances) Act and 12,766 cases under section 15 (a) of the Karnataka Excise Act 1965. Furthermore, authorities have impounded 1,214 vehicles of various types.

Dalits threaten to boycott polls over unfulfilled demands

Mysuru, Apr. 13 (GA&DM)- The Pragatipara Dalit Okkoota has threatened to boycott Lok Sabha polls if parties and candidates do not assure of addressing issues such as land, housing and unemployment concerning Dalits and fulfillment of other just demands.

Addressing a press meet here recently, Okkoota District President M. Shivanna Kandegala said that influential land owners should distribute lands that they have usurped across the State, among the poor and the landless.

Wanting the Government to issue tilling rights to poor and marginal cultivators, Shivanna said that the authorities should also distribute houses to the shelterless and register a criminal case against those misusing and misappropriating funds meant for the welfare of SC/ST communities.

He also demanded filling up of 1.32 lakh backlog vacancies in the State, free education to poor children, job reservation in the private sector and annulment of false cases registered against progressive activists, among others. He reiterated that the Okkoota will be forced to boycott LS polls if the authorities, political parties and candidates do not give any assurances regarding reddressal of these demands.

Okkoota office-bearers Anusha, Basavaraju and Mahesh Gattuwadi were present at the press meet.

The Name Game

Early this morning I was to meet the popular TV journalist Rajdeep Sardesai for a breakfast interview regarding the upcoming Lok Sabha elections in Mysuru-Kodagu region.

We agreed to meet at the now 'must stop-over' breakfast place for outsiders — Mylari Hotel in Nazarbad. I arrived first and settled into what I believed to be the 'original' Mylari.

A few minutes later, Rajdeep and his India Today team also reached. But they got off and entered another restaurant. They too had entered an 'original' Mylari!

Not finding each other in our respective 'original' Mylaris, we stepped out, found each other and finally settled into a third 'original' Mylari, the "real original" Mylari as one of the waiters claimed.

It turned out there are four 'original' Mylaris, all supposedly serving dosa 'since 1938' on Nazarbad Main Road!

This multi-verse of Mylaris is sure to confuse dosa lovers, forcing most to choose the one they are closest to.

This 'name-game' to garner business is deployed to deceive and confuse voters too and it reminded me of Dr. C.N. Manjunath.

Dr. C.N. Manjunath, the BJP candidate and popular Cardiologist, who is posing a serious threat to D.K. Suresh of Congress in the Bangalore Rural Constituency, has suddenly found himself requesting voters to look for the 'lotus' symbol and not just his name. Reason? 'Namesake' menace.

Suddenly, four Manjunaths filed their nominations! Then three withdrew. Now one remains. Interestingly, he too is a doctor, albeit he has an honorary doctorate. Worse, this 'doctorate' doctor even has the same initial which makes him, Dr. C.N. Manjunath!

While Dr. C.N. Manjunath has a BJP party symbol to bank on as an identifier, Mandya MP Sumalatha had a tough time when she stood for elections in Mandya in 2019.

Many may recall when Sumalatha made her political debut in Mandya, so did Nikhil Kumaraswamy, the grandson of JD(S) supremo H.D. Deve Gowda. On the ballot, there were three other Sumalathas. Luckily the 'original' Sumalatha had her husband's name 'Ambarish', which helped her.

Sumalatha went on to beat Nikhil Kumaraswamy by a margin of 1,40,000 votes but surprisingly the other three 'duplicate' Sumalathas, all of whom were independent candidates, managed to secure 20,203 votes! Imagine if it was a close election. The fake Sumalathas would have made a difference. That is why these namesakes are called 'voter-cutters.'

In Holenarasipur, senior JD(S) leader H.D. Revanna was faced by another H.D. Revanna. The original H.D. Revanna won the election with a margin of 3,152 votes against Shreyas M. Patel of INC. But the fake H.D. Revanna had managed to secure 2,061 votes. Had his namesake not stood for election, H.D. Revanna, the original, would have won by a margin of 5,213 votes.

In the 2018 Karnataka Assembly election, there were 28 Constituencies in Bengaluru alone which had more than one candidate with the same name! They were all independents.

This strategy of using voter-cutters is a pan-India issue. In Tamil Nadu, then CM O. Panneerselvam had to face four other O. Paneerselvams in Ramanathapuram. Hema Malini, contesting in Mathura, had to face two other Hema Malinis. In Kerala, in the 2016 Assembly election, of the 140 Assembly Constituencies, there were namesake candidates in 50 Constituencies.

Rahul Gandhi, in 2019, had to deal with voter-cutters. Three Rahul Gandhis appeared after the original Rahul Gandhi had filed his papers!

It's indeed praiseworthy that they managed to find three Rahul Gandhis in Wayanad, Kerala, given that the surname 'Gandhi' is almost non-existent in that region. It was reported that one of the Rahuls was imported from another State. Interestingly, one of the three Gandhis was a Phonetic Rahul Gandhi as his name was spelt as - RaGhul Gandhi!

Even Prime Minister Narendra Modi wasn't spared. He too had a namesake, an independent candidate named Narendra Babulal Modi. This Modi had filed his nomination in 2014 from Vadodara Lok Sabha Constituency, but he withdrew at the last moment.

In a close election, every vote makes a difference and these dummy candidates can cause damage and ruin futures.

In last year's Karnataka Legislative Assembly polls, Congress' Sowmya Reddy lost by just 16 votes from Jayanagar. There was another Sowmya Reddy in the fray and she got 320 votes. Had the other Sowmya not been there, the 'original' Sowmya Reddy would have won.

Political parties don't just use similar names. They also use party abbreviations and symbols to confuse voters. Come election and suddenly party names appear whose acronym is the same as the party's vote they want to cut.

Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) had to deal with two more AAPs. One was called the Aapki Apni Party (AAP) but this AAP added a (People) in the bracket like it was AAP (P).

It doesn't end there. If the namesake is not enough and the party acronym is not enough, then it's time to go after the symbol.

The Aapki Apni Party (People) chose a battery torch with lines of light coming out, which the AAP claimed looked like a broom, the AAP's symbol. The Delhi High Court declared that the symbol indeed was similar and ruled that AAP(P) could not use its flashlight.

In Andhra Pradesh, two candidates went into a legal rotary over their symbol — one used a ceiling fan and the other a helicopter. Apparently, the voter could not differentiate between fan blades and helicopter blades!

Meanwhile, the Election Commission (EC) — as progressive as it has tried to be — has been unable to curb this menace of trying to deceive the voter. The EC absolutely must scuttle every attempt to hoodwink an illiterate voter. They could display the picture of the candidate next to his name which they said they would do but still have not.

The EC says it's up to the political parties to give clarity to their voters. That's unfortunate.

For now, Shakespeare wrote "What's in a name? That which we call a rose by any other name would smell as sweet."

Sure, it will, but when a name is allowed on a ballot to deceive a voter it stinks up our electoral system.

CM Siddaramaiah calls on MP Sreenivasa Prasad

Mysuru, Apr.13 (MTY&DM)- Ahead of Lok Sabha polls, Chief Minister Siddaramaiah called on Chamarajanagar BJP MP V. Sreenivasa Prasad, who has announced political retirement, at the latter's residence in Jayalakshmipuram here this morning and enquired about his health.

The CM's visit assumes significance as it comes after a gap of eight years since Prasad parted ways with Congress after he was dropped from the then Siddaramaiah-led Congress Government in 2016. After the meeting, both leaders claimed that this was a courtesy visit and politics was not discussed. Siddu was closeted with Prasad for about 10 minutes.

Speaking to mediapersons after coming out of Prasad's residence, Siddaramaiah said that they were long—term political associates. But Prasad joined the BJP a few years ago due to some reasons and now that he has announced political retirement, he paid a courtesy visit.

Clarifying that they did not discuss politics, the CM said, however, he has appealed Prasad to have sympathy for Congress, the party, which he (Prasad) was associated with for decades.

The MP said that the CM's visit has brought happiness to him and his family. Recalling his long association with Siddaramaiah, Prasad said there is nothing much to be attached to the visit.

When reporters asked the MP if he would take part in PM Modi's rally in the city tomorrow, Prasad said, "I have not received any invite from BJP leaders for the rally. Even if I get an invitation now, I will not take part." He further said that the Congress has better chances of winning the Chamarajanagar (SC) seat.

Earlier, CM Siddaramaiah visited the residence of late Minister H.S. Mahadevaprasad in Kuvempunagar. He was warmly greeted by former Minister Geetha Mahadevaprasad, her son MLA H.M. Ganesh Prasad and other family members.

Animal Husbandry Minister K. Venkatesh, MLAs A.R. Krishnamurthy and K. Harishgowda, MUDA Chairman K. Marigowda and others were present.

Siddu questions Modi's contribution to State

Mysuru, Apr.13 (MTY&DM)- With Prime Minister Narendra Modi scheduled to visit the city for Lok Sabha poll campaign tomorrow, Chief Minister Siddaramaiah has questioned Modi's contribution to the State in the last 10 years.

Addressing mediapersons at his residence in Ramakrishnanagar here this morning, Siddaramaiah wanted to know why the Modi Government had not released drought relief funds to Karnataka at a time when the State was reeling under unprecedented drought. He sought answers from Modi before he (Modi) campaigns in the State.

Accusing the Centre of improper and biased devolution of GST taxes and failure to address unemployment and other burning issues that the country was facing, the CM maintained that the NDA would not get an absolute majority in the LS polls.

Charging the BJP of advocating false propaganda that the BJP would get 400 seats, he said that the Opposition I.N.D.I.A bloc would get an absolute majority.

Cafe blast case

CM Siddaramaiah lauded the NIA and the State Police for nabbing The Rameshwaram Cafe blast case suspects from Kolkata yesterday.

Change of Constitution

Wondering why the BJP is yet to take action against its Uttara Kannada MP who had openly declared that the Constitution would be changed if the BJP bagged 400 seats in LS polls, Siddaramaiah criticised the MP for coming out in the open only for the past few months while doing nothing for the Constituency for over four years.

Accusing the BJP of being against the Constitution, Siddaramaiah said RSS leaders Savarakar and Golwalkar were very much against the Constitution.

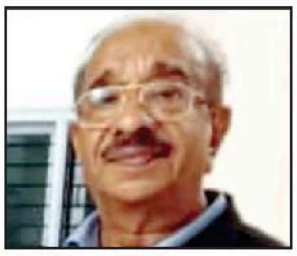
End of E-Bonds: What next?

State Political Funding: A Democratic Alternative –1



By Prof. M. Umapathy
Retd. Professor and Head,
Department of Political Science,
University of Mysore

The tragic story of 'Electoral-Bonds' (2017-2024) is a remarkable development in the growth of India's Democracy. None other than the Supreme Court of India, in its judgment on 15th February 2024, declared it as "Unconstitutional" and ended it.

E-Bonds, which promised to end black money and corruption in Indian elections, failed in its promise of bringing transparency in political funding. The layers of secrecy around it denied the voter the Right To Information under Article 19(1)(a) about who gave and who received the funds under E-Bond.

It violated the RBI Act, as well as the objections to the scheme by the Reserve Bank of India and the Election Commission of India. It pursued the indirect and questionable route of the "Money Bill" to amend various standing legislations like the RBI Act, Banking legislation and the Companies Act. Supreme Court judgment exposed this, as never before, all these and more, the suspected quid-pro-quo (give and take) between the fund-giver and the fund-taker, indicating possible corrupt practices. It was the much-needed sunlight on the role of Big-Money Power in Indian Politics.

E-Bonds have ended. What next? is the question in the minds of all. The Abracadabra in Star of Mysore dated Apr. 2 on this, was a powerful write-up with concerns for the strength and health of our Democracy.

DEMOCRACY IN THEORY

Abraham Lincoln, the President of USA in the mid-19th century, innocently defined Democracy as a government by the people, for the people, and of the people. Mr. Nathpai, a socialist member of India's Parliament in the 1960s and 1970s, defined Democracy in operation as "BUY the people, for the people and of the people," indicating the role of 'Big-Money' in democracies.

'Democracy' which means rule by the people is never true. Giovanni Sartori, in his classic book Democratic Theory, convincingly points out that Democracy is 'Neither all power to the people nor rule by all the people.' Governments are always by few.

Democracy differs from other forms of governments by the three 'Rs' (Representative, Responsive and Responsible government) it stands for. The Representative nature of Democracy realised through periodic free and fair elections is the most important first step to realise the other two 'Rs' (Responsive and Responsible government or good governance). We should also remember that though Democracy believes in the people's sovereignty, it does not give 'all the power to the people.' Indeed, Democracy is better understood as 'all power to none,' the opposite of 'all power to one' (dictatorship).

Democracy believes in and works on the 'theory of separation of powers of government in many ways — horizontally as legislative, executive and judicial and vertically into various federal units. This makes Democracy 'a government by check and balance' and 'a government by discussion.' The intention is negatively to prevent the rise of dictatorship and positively to promote a 'rational government in the interest of the public.'

DEMOCRACY IN PRACTICE

Elections, so primary to Democracy, have only gradually reformed from being a tool of the vested interests like the royals, landed gentry, urban bourgeois, only men, educated men, or tax-paying men. The right to vote of all adults, called as Universal Adult Franchise, is indeed a twentieth-century development. It permits each adult to have a say in deciding who should rule us and promote the public interest.

But, the 'vested interests' have never allowed the power of the people or public interest to be real. They continue to influence and control the power of the people through 'muscle power' and 'money power' promoting their own private interests.

In the early elections, held in England, the place of origin of the modern electoral system, elections were held in open public meetings through show of hands. It was a season for 'brawling and merry-making.'

"Rivers of beer were set flowing; bribes were openly offered and accepted; organised bands of 'bludgeon-men' went about intimidating and coercing electors; non-voters thrust themselves joyously into the fray; political convictions were expressed in terms of 'rotten-apples' and 'dead cats,' heads were broken and a generally riotous time was had by all (Ogg. F. A. English Government and Politics 1936 p8 298-99).

Pic. courtesy: webdunia.com

Such electoral constituencies were called "rotten boroughs" and "pocket boroughs" of the rich and the goons. [Incidentally, The Hindu of 8th April 2024, p5, reports the seizure of "beer worth Rs. 9.54 crore in Hassan District, Karnataka on Saturday, the 6th April for violating Model Code of Conduct. Shall we say 'beer is immortal' or the 'vested interests are eternal?' Better we say they are!].

Elections moved gradually towards 'Secret-Ballot' with ballot paper, ballot boxes and ballot booths. Soon, muscle powers and money powers developed the technique of 'Booth-Capturing' and stuffing ballot boxes at their wish. The EVMs (Electronic Voting Machines) which replaced paper ballots reduced booth capturing. But the fairness of these cyber machines is clouded with the possibility of cyber crimes in manipulating voting. The Supreme Court of India is yet to give its final verdict on them. EVMs finality is yet to emerge. European nations have moved back and forth between EVMs and ballot boxes.

MUSCLE POWER AND MONEY POWER

Of the two dark shadows of muscle power and money power, the muscle power is not so much in the open now, but it is still visible. The alarming increase in the number of our MPs and MLAs with criminal cases against them is proof enough.

The most worrisome shadow power of today is the 'Money-power.' It has made a mockery of Democracy by tempting, trancing and triumphing the people to promote the interests and power of the moneyed. The increasing number of 'Crorepatis' as candidates in our elections, elected MPs and MLAs in our Democracy and the ever-increasing seizure of crores and crores of rupees in our elections, including the elections - 2024 reported in our media, testify to this evil.

THE SEARCH FOR AN ALTERNATIVE

This search must answer, two important questions:

i) Why should elections be so costly? ii) Who should pay this cost to make Democracy healthy?

Our answers to these questions can only be indicative here, not exhaustive.

Our elections are unnecessarily over-expensive. They are deliberately designed that way by the note-vote nexus that dominates. The political class gets notes, votes and power in that order. The private money bags that contribute to the economy ensure enormous returns to themselves through the quid-pro-quo arrangements with the political parties.

The expenses in elections are very high due to the heavy costs of printing, TV time buying, expenditure on advertising space, hiring an army of campaigners and the endless amounts needed to tempt and trans the voters. The Representation of The People Act, 1951 has placed limits on the individual candidate's expenditure from Rs. 65 lakh to Rs. 95 lakh, depending on the size of the Constituency. Every candidate spends tens of crores above this limit. But they lie to the EC and Parliament, saying they have not exceeded the statutory limits. According to an ex-Election Commissioner (on TV) nearly 50 percent of the candidates even dare say that they have spent only half of the amount permitted. In addition, the political parties too spend enormous amounts on elections, with no limits or ceilings imposed on it.

The resulting flood of money makes free and fair elections a myth. The political party with the biggest money power literally bulldozes the election. It emasculated if not obliterates the level playing field.

[To be continued tomorrow]

Former PM H.D. Deve Gowda to share stage with PM Modi

Bengaluru, Apr. 13 (KMS&DM)- As the election for the Mysuru-Kodagu Lok Sabha Constituency and 13 other constituencies in the Southern part of the State approaches, Prime Minister Narendra Modi is set to address a massive rally at the expansive Maharaja College Grounds tomorrow, April 14, at 4 pm. The purpose of the rally is to garner support for BJP-JD(S) coalition candidates.

Joining PM Modi on stage will be JD(S) supremo and former Prime Minister H.D. Deve Gowda, veteran BJP leader and former Chief Minister B.S. Yediyurappa, former CM and Mandya candidate H.D. Kumaraswamy, State BJP Chief B.Y. Vijayendra, and other prominent coalition leaders.

This collective presence aims to showcase the strength and unity of the coalition partners. Candidates from Mysuru-Kodagu, Hassan, Chamarajanagar, and Mandya constituencies will also participate in the rally, boosting the morale of workers from both coalition parties.

Following the Mysuru rally, PM Modi will proceed to Mangaluru in the evening, where he will partake in roadshows on behalf of BJP candidates from the coastal region.

Previously, PM Modi addressed a massive rally in Shivamogga on Mar. 18, with potential BJP candidates from five Lok Sabha seats sharing the stage. He also visited Kalaburagi, the home Constituency of AICC President Mallikarjun Kharge, on Mar. 16, coinciding with the announcement of the 2024 Lok Sabha polls schedule by the Election Commission of India (ECI).

Mega security for Modi's Mysuru rally

During his visit, PM Modi is expected to spend approximately 35 to 40 minutes on stage before proceeding to Mangaluru as part of his Lok Sabha election campaign itinerary. Stringent security measures have been implemented for this high-profile event, as Modi seeks votes for the BJP-JD(S) alliance candidates contesting from Mysuru-Kodagu, Mandya and Chamarajanagar regions.

Massive stage

Despite the brevity of the PM's visit, security forces are leaving no stone unturned to ensure an incident-free event. A massive stage is being erected at the Maharaja's College Grounds, utilising the entire area for this purpose. The stage measures 8 feet in height, with a width of 80 feet and a length of 40 feet, adhering to the protocols set by SPG.

A 60-foot no-movement zone has been established around the stage, bordered by barricades on all sides, with only a 5-foot space allocated for VVIP movement. Beyond this zone, the audience will be seated and a large pedal featuring audio-visual screens erected to enhance their viewing experience.

SPG to take over stage at 4 pm today

A section of the stage has been designated as a hospitality centre for the Prime Minister, complete with a temporary restroom facility.

To ensure seamless security arrangements, the stage and its surroundings are slated to be handed over to the control of the SPG-NSG by 4 pm today, a full 12 hours ahead of the PM's visit.

Chopper rehearsals

Ahead of the visit, flight rehearsals of six to seven IAF choppers were held this morning from the Airport to the Oval Grounds and back.

Two helipads have been readied and are adequately watered and maintained so that dust does not arise due to blade rotation when the choppers land.

Alternative route by road

The IAF team has conducted a thorough inspection of the Oval Grounds today. This team comprises an anti-sabotage unit, which includes experts from bomb squad and metal-detecting specialists.

Their primary objective is to sanitise the area designated for the PM's visit and assume control of the venue's security. Forces guarding the venue and the personnel who will be present tomorrow will be briefed by the SPG-NSG today evening.

In addition to the anti-sabotage unit, the team will be accompanied by support units such as the dog squad and additional bomb disposal experts.

Together, they will meticulously inspect the main route, which will be covered by the IAF chopper, as well as the alternative route from the Airport to Maharaja's College Grounds by road.

They will also explore any other potential options for the Prime Minister's cavalcade, ensuring comprehensive security measures are in place for the duration of his brief visit.

Colourful start to Chinnara Mela

Mysuru, Apr. 13 (SPN&VNS)- This year's 'Chinnara Mela' got off to a colourful start with Indian Book of Records holder and artiste R. Gokula Sahrudaya inaugurating the camp by pulling the miniature version of 'Chinnara Mela' cart at Vanaranga in Rangayana here yesterday.

Speaking on the occasion, Gokula said involving in theatre activities would help children develop concentration and get deeply involved in their studies. He urged parents to encourage their children to take part in extracurricular activities as it would build a sense of commitment to achieve their goal. Stating that involving in theatre had no adverse effect on education, Gokula said theatre helps in developing confidence to face tough situations.

This year Rangayana has organised 'Chinnara Mela' on the theme 'Samaraseve Jeevana' (Harmony is Life). Soon after that inaugural event, 'Chitte' play featuring Gokula was staged.
